HIPNOTICA

Hipnotica is a fun and extraordinarily entertaining Hypnosis show featuring internationally acclaimed Australian performer and hypnotist, Patrick Wanis.

Wanis uses a safe and proven method of Hypnosis, and combines lights, music, sound effects, audience participation and interaction to create a fun, clean, classy and spectacular show. Wanis involves the whole audience. There is no embarrassment to anyone, and the participants walk away feeling empowered by this wonderful and positive experience.

Audience volunteers arrive on stage and use the vehicle of their own imaginations to embark on a safe and fun voyage filled with laughter, music, and creativity. Wanis unlocks their hidden talents, such as talking to each other in Martian, saving Earth from attack, becoming James Bond or Rocky, and walking on the moon.

Wanis is thought provoking. His performances are powerful, original, theatrical, and targeted to satisfy the entertainment appetites of today's business world.

With degrees in Hypnotherapy, communication, human behavior, cognitive sciences, and Neuro-Linguistic Programming, Wanis is an entertainer with a message. Wanis has had coverage in magazines, has appeared on television and radio, and performed in conventions, major clubs, cruise ships and resorts worldwide. He has authored the books, "How to Hypnotize Anyone", "How to tap into the hidden powers of your mind", "What a woman wants" "How to find happiness" and "How to get over it." Wanis leaves crowds talking long after his presentation.

Using only volunteers, and combining lights, music and sound effects, every show is customized to the specific audience. Some corporate clients elect to have Patrick Wanis present a motivational speaking program during the day and his hypnosis show at night.

He consults and presents custom programs for major corporations such as El Paso Energy, Exxon, Doubletree & Hilton hotels, Rinoval (Mexico and Canada), SuperClubs Bahamas, and Alpha Model Group.

Patrick Wanis began his career in Australia on stage, radio, and Television. He worked as Executive Producer of News/Talk Radio 3AK in Melbourne, and Political reporter for Tens News Television. In 1990, Wanis became the youngest talk show host in Australian history, and interviewed the Australian Prime Minister on numerous occasions both on radio and television. The Australian Journalists Association awarded Wanis the elite ranking of A+++ Grade Journalist.

In 1991, Patrick decided to focus his energy on live entertainment. He created, directed, produced and performed hypnosis, dance, comedy-variety and musicals in both English and Spanish in countries including Africa, Spain, and England, Mexico, and The Caribbean. Patrick was the first person to introduce pantomime musicals to West Africa. He was also the first Caucasian to hypnotize African pygmies and Thomsons recognized his achievements in entertainment with the award for Best Entertainment -Gambia, West Africa three consecutive years, (1991-1993). In 1993, the renowned European TV program, Canal Plus 24 Horas featured Wanis for his show productions and performances. Patrick was also first to perform hypnosis shows for Carnival Cruise Lines and was awarded Best Entertainment -all hotels, Mexico, by Apple Vacations and Thomsons in 1994 & 1995 for his many show productions including, The Mask!

In 1995, Wanis began motivational training programs and workshops for Steiners Services, Carnival Cruises. His quest for challenge led him to the production of large scale events including the Clinton/Gore 96 campaign visit to Orlando and the Blues Brothers 2000 for Daytona 500. He also began consulting to large corporations, such as Fox Television, Club Marival Mexico, SeaWorld and Busch Gardens. From 1998 to 2000, Wanis was a regular co-host and Hypnotherapist on America Talks Health, syndicated radio show.

Wanis continues to voluntarily coach children and teens in drama and emotional growth. In 2001, he hosted two TV talk shows Teens on Terrorism and in 2002, he hosted another TV special on September 11. Clients and corporations use Wanis' Subconscious Personality Test – a unique personality and behavioral analysis for productivity and results. Wanis has authored the Mini Mags, How to hypnotize anyone, How to tap into the hidden powers of your mind, Soul Mates and the books, How to find happiness, What a woman wants, and How to get over it –breakups, betrayals and rejection.
